

*Yes my dear,
we can talk to the dead...*

The first time I connected with my dead mother was two years after she left this earth plane. A colleague of mine had just visited a medium and was astounded by what she had heard. When she shared her experience with me, the first thought that came to my mind was “If my mother knows there is a way for me to get in touch with her and I don’t ... I’m going to be in big trouble!”

Not having ever before given much thought to mediums, talking with the dead or connecting with my mother on any level, the idea of now being able to be with her in some way, shape or form intrigued me. Since I lost her unexpectedly ... I felt this may be a perfect opportunity to get some closure.

Being of curious nature, I scheduled a session with a woman who did not know me from Eve. After being with her for one hour, I knew in my heart of hearts that while we may no longer inhabit our physical body, we remain very present and accessible. I left that session with a knowing that my mother was not only enjoying herself in the great beyond, but she was as close to me as my own breath.

That reading, which took place ten years ago, opened up a whole new world for me.

My mother has taken her favorite earthly expression, “the more the merrier” to absolutely new levels and reveals the truth in that expression as she and I co-facilitate the connection between heaven and earth.

I do not profess to know how this connection works, but I do confess to know it does work and I intend to return next month to share more insights and experiences with you.

Please allow me to bring your loved ones through. You may find peace and comfort and a great deal of joy in the process.
