

*Yes my dear,
we can talk to the dead...*

Referrals from heaven. They are as wonderful as pennies from heaven! I love and welcome my referrals from heaven!

They show up in person or on the telephone or even via email. They come in all shapes, sizes, colors, persuasions and from an eclectic blend of beliefs and spirituality. They seek comfort, closure, answers and peace. Some arrive as skeptics, others as real believers. Often they are sad, lost, angry, grieving. Their common thread is a need to connect.

And thus, my referrals from heaven are sent to me by their loved ones. I so believe when you reach out to me, you are doing so because you were led to me by someone special on the other side who knows you need to connect with them. These connections are much bigger than you and far bigger than me.

Those of you who know me know my mother, Leah, is my number one 'go-to guide'. She once told me (in meditation) there were so many spirits on the other side (her side) in need of connection. If I were ready to receive them, she would send them to me. Of course I whole heartedly agreed to serve as that connection, the bridge, the conduit. And so be it.

I believe spirit contacts you, the human, and suggests you contact me. It has been my experience that most of you who have reached out to me, do not even know why you did or what prompted you to do so. I have heard time and time again, especially at our Calling All Souls circle, participants state they did not know why they were led to the circle – they only knew they were supposed to be there!

Divine intervention? You bet ~ I certainly believe! So listen to that niggling voice, pay attention to that song on the radio and know I am here to serve you.
